Dear Sir/ Madam,

Subject: EDPMS Shipping Bill Outstanding –reminder

This refers to the Reserve Bank of India FED Master Direction prevalent as on date which stipulates that any exporter having shipping bills outstanding for a period of more than 2 years from the date of shipment as per records in the EDPMS database will be caution listed.

We enclose herewith the list of outstanding shipping Bills for non-submission of export documents appearing in the EDPMS against your name.

Request you to arrange for immediate submission of export documents and speedy realization of the export proceeds and intimate us for the shipping bills assigned to us. You can also apply to us for permission for extension in realization of export proceeds in terms of guidelines contained in extant RBI master direction on Export of Goods and Services. If the export transactions have been already realized, kindly provide us the Inward Remittance Advice/ Original FIRC for endorsement/ IRM no as reported in EDPMS.

RBI has extended time of caution list till 30.09.2020 and no further extension will be given and no representations in this regard will be entertained hence request you to regularize the outstanding shipping bills on immediate basis.

You are similarly requested to close all such shipping bills outstanding with other AD banks in India.

We furnish below the extract of RBI Master Direction to Authorised Dealers—Export of Goods and Services FED Master Direction for Caution Listed exporters for reference:-

a) When caution listed exporters submit shipping documents for negotiation / purchase/ discount/ collection, etc. the AD Category – I bank may accept the documents subject to following conditions:-

- i. The exporters concerned should produce evidence of having received advance payment or an irrevocable letter of credit in their favour covering the full value of the proposed exports;
 - ii. In case of usance bills, the relative letter of credit should cover full export value and also permit such drawings. Besides, the usance bills should also mature within prescribed realisation period reckoned from date of shipment.
 - iii. Except under the above mentioned conditions given in 2 (a) (i) and (ii), AD banks should not handle the shipping documents of caution listed exporters.
- (b) AD Category – I banks should obtain prior approval of the Reserve Bank for issuing guarantees for caution-listed exporters.

We request you to accord top priority to this so as to comply with RBI directives. You may please write to us on the below email id's for any clarification/assistance.

In case you find any items appearing in the outstanding list for which you have already presented documents/information for closure, please contact us @ or kindly update status as docs sent to bank against that Shipping Bill and send mail to respective metro email id's as mentioned below.
