Re: Class B1 Visa/ Extension of Temporary Stay
Receipt # EAC-02-063-51363 (Vivek Singhal)

Dear Sir/ Madam:

Attached herewith please find:

1. A copy of the captioned approval of an extension of my temporary stay, granted by your department.
2. A copy of the certified letter I sent to your Vermont service center asking a question about this approval.
3. A signed and dated form I-539, and $140.00 postal money order.
4. A copy of my previous I-539 application.

Upon receiving the above approval, my employer contacted your department to determine whether you had made an error with regard to the date of issuance of my approval. As the attached letter (number 2) indicates, your office verbally confirmed there was no mistake and that the extension was valid for three months from the date of receipt by my employer. In the same letter, I also requested that you confirm this information. The letter, which was sent by certified mail/ return receipt requested has not been replied to.

Since your office has not replied to my previous query about the proper date of commencement of my extension, I have enclosed a new application and fee. For ease of reference, I have also included my previous application. I request that you review my previous application with respect to an addendum required in my current application.

I am writing to you in furtherance of the counsel I received regarding this matter from agent number 6227 of your department, whom I spoke with today by calling 1800-375-5283. Kindly inform me of whether I have followed the proper protocol given these unusual circumstances, and if not, how I may rectify any mistakes on my part.

Kind regards,

Vivek Singhal
